

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH.

This year the chapel exercises will be held every Wednesday from 11 until 12 in the large assembly room of the museum building. During this hour all class work will cease, thus giving the students an opportunity to attend. In previous years the exercises were held every morning from 8:45 until 9 o'clock. Last Wednesday, the students were addressed by Pres. J. T. Kingsbury. They were also favored with a vocal solo by Miss Pederson.

The first number of the University Chronicle will be issued Sept. 30.

On Thursday, Coach Homes checked the suits to the foot ball men and regular practice work began. This season the boys take their meals at a "training table." Breakfast comes from 7 until 8, lunch at 12 and dinner from 6 until 7.

Messrs. James R. Smith, J. Fred Anderson, John Z. Brown, Hyrum Smith, William Smith, Riley Sken and Harold Goff, graduates of the normal school last June, have returned to the University to continue their studies until graduation with degrees. Of the "naught naught normal class" John W. Condie, Oscar W. Carlson, and Thomas M. Reese are registered as students in the university.

Mr. D. L. McDonald, N. '96, was a visitor on Wednesday.

Mr. ... of the track team last year, will study medicine at the Bellevue Medical college, New York. He leaves Salt Lake next Tuesday.

Supervisor Evans spent Monday and Tuesday at Provo attending to official business connected with the art institute.

Professors Allen and Stewart will deliver an illustrated lecture in the Twenty-first ward Sunday evening, Sept. 23.

On Saturday, Sept. 27, Prof. Stewart will conduct the Sanpete County Teachers' institute at Ephraim.

State Senator A. O. Smoot of Provo, his wife and daughter, were visitors on Thursday. Miss Smoot will attend the university this year.

Dr. Agnes Kelley Ph. D., Munich, a lady from Australia, visited the university on Thursday. She came here recently in company with Pres. Jordan of Stanford. The lady is particularly interested in biological research.

Pres. James Sharp of the board of regents will address the students at chapel next Wednesday.

Regent Mrs. R. E. Little, Mrs. W. W. Ritter and former Regent Col. Donnellan were visitors at the university this week.

SALT LAKE CITY SCHOOLS

The schools have settled down to earnest, enthusiastic work. An element characterizing the laborers this year is the contented, pleasant and harmonious spirit prevailing. The new department recently created has added

LITTLE ZETHA HAMMER.

Miss Hammer is but eight years of age. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hammer Jr., and belongs to the Third A class, of the Twelfth school and excels in scholarship in all branches pursued. She was awarded a special promotion at the close of the first term last year, and she also stood at the head of the new class at the close of the year in June.

new zest, and will increase the interest in other features of the curriculum.

There are now 348 members of the teaching corps in the Salt Lake City schools, exclusive of supervisors, directors and assistants, of whom there are seven.

The teachers of this city will be paid for two weeks' service on Sept. 24. This is a courtesy not before enjoyed by teachers in the history of the schools, and Superintendent Christensen, board of education and teachers are to be congratulated.

Miss Anna Corbett of Cambridge, Mass., assistant in the sewing branch of the domestic arts department, arrived on Thursday and has assumed her duties.

Supervisor Pollock visited this week the Wasatch, Washington, Ogurh, Webster and Ninth schools.

Meeting of the principals of the city schools was held on Wednesday afternoon, at which time the exhibit at the forthcoming state fair was discussed, as well as matters relative to the regular work of the year.

J. W. Raymer, the new teacher of physics in the West Side high school, arrived on Thursday and immediately assumed his duties.

Director Tomlinson will on Monday next take up the supervision of the domestic arts department in the West Side schools of the city.

Supervisor Wetzel will conduct a chorus at the state fair. The chorus will be made up of pupils from the city schools.

The equipment for the manual training department has arrived, and everything will be in readiness for that department of work on Monday.

Superintendent Christensen, Supervisor Elliott and Principals Cross, Bradford and Powers, all of whom constitute the committee for the school exhibit, visited the Fair grounds on Monday, and procured ample space for the display that is to be made.

A. O. Garrett, one of the new additions to the West Side High School corps, reported for duty on Tuesday.

The Union school building has undergone a complete re-arrangement and appointment relative to the rooms, the walls have been neatly tinted, new entrances provided, the grounds improved, and in every way the situation is far more inviting and substantial.

Mrs. F. W. Price and Rev. Worrall

MISS HULDAROSE BROWN.

Miss Huldarose Brown, one of the most successful pupils in the Third A class, Twelfth school. She is but nine years of age, and accomplished last year the work of a year and a half. In one year, and was specially recognized. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar D. Brown.

were visitors at the Franklin on Tuesday.

Miss McClelland of the Twelfth school has 58 pupils enrolled. It is probable that Miss M. will have double sessions.

Miss Belle Lawson of the Fremont school spent the summer at Portland and Long Beach. Her sister, Miss Blanche, of the Ogurh, visited in Pacific Grove and San Francisco.

Supervisor Elliott visited the Summer, Wasatch, Ogurh and Hamilton schools this week.

Miss Florence Jessup, assistant in manual training, was selected during the summer from a list of 4,000 applicants for a position in the manual training department of the New York city schools, a great compliment to her ability as an instructor.

The visitors at the Union the past week were Mrs. Munn, Mrs. Grow, Mrs. Dicks, Miss Wall and Supervisor Pollock.

The aggregate enrollment of the schools of the city brought down to Sept. 17, is exclusive of the High schools, 11,489. The Bryant High school

MISS HORTENSE YOUNG.

Miss Hortense Young, daughter of Dr. Seymour B. Young, nine years of age, and who belongs to the Third A class, of the Twelfth school, this city, made an excellent record for scholarship in all her classes, and advanced to the next class by special promotion in February, 1902, and also led her classmates at the close of the year in June.

enrolls 123, and the West Side High school, 623. The Lowell leads the grade schools with 594.

Miss Hanks of the Union school and mother are at the Pleasanton.

Miss Morcy Baker is substituting for Mrs. Bliss of the Union, who is absent by reason of illness.

Mrs. Angell substituted for Mrs. Porter of the Riverside on Tuesday.

The teachers and students at the East Side High school have entered upon their work with great zeal, and Principal McCoy looks upon present conditions with a great deal of pride.

A company of cadets has been formed at the Bryant High school, the decks are being cleared and a well drilled company may soon be expected.

Upon the recommendation of Supt. Christensen, the Franklin school year took the initiative in specializing or introducing department work, and the teachers of that school who have tried the plan speak in unqualified terms of the results, and pupils also are enthusiastic. The work is continued again this year. Mrs. Banker, Miss Duncan and Mrs. Robbins having charge of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, and Miss Lytle, Miss Jellish and Mr. Taylor the fourth and fifth grades.

At the Union, Misses Mitchell, Smith and Dixon have charge of the seventh and eighth grades, and Principal Wallace gives it his hearty approval. Other schools that have introduced this department are the Fremont, Washington, Grant, Ogurh, Sumner and Franklin.

WEST SIDE HIGH SCHOOL.

Mr. Raymer who has been engaged to take charge of the department of physics assumed his duties on Thursday.

The attendance up to Sept. 17, is 623.

Mr. Garrett, late of the Fort Scott High school arrived this week and entered upon his work.

Miss Ruby Armstrong, who for several years has occupied the position of clerk, is again at her post this year, her duties requiring her to be unusually busy.

The hard working spirit which characterized the work last year is again evident this year, and the outlook for this department of the public schools of this city for the current is most promising. Principal Eaton has reason to be greatly pleased with present prospects.

Miss Teasdel who succeeds to the position made vacant by the temporary absence of Prof. Harwood is much interested in the work of her department, and looks for excellent results.

Mr. Rees, of the High school, reports 30 students in his beginning classes in German, and Miss Critchlow about 20 beginners, as well as classes in advanced German.

Mrs. Jennings takes complete charge of French this year.

Military drill began in earnest this week with a large company organized.

The lunch counter is again installed in a neighboring building.

L. D. S. UNIVERSITY.

City—The beginning class in French nearly fills a good sized room; and a number of ladies of the city are about to petition for a special class.

The law studies should be undertaken not later than next week by any students or business men that desire this work. The class meets from 8 to 9 a. m.

The number of students enrolled up to Thursday noon was 626. Of these 69 were missionaries, 240 were business students, and 326 were normal and high school.

Singers at our Wednesday meetings like the symphonic quality of the new "Chopin" piano in Barratt hall. It is an instrument that represents the best effort in the art of piano construction. It has a tone of great volume, sweetness and brilliance.

The University as a home for students is cozy, neat, and clean. The new furniture gives an air of elegance to the buildings, and many accommodations are afforded to the students by the arrangement of classes and departments.

General exercises were conducted in the Barratt hall Wednesday morning. Pres. Paul read with comments from Ecclesiastes, twelfth chapter, and Mr. J. D. Bowers sang two beautiful tenor solos. Principal R. T. Haug of the Fielding academy at Paris, Idaho, addressed the students in a happy and thoughtful vein. In response to a special request from Pres. Paul, Mr. Bowers sang, "Till Death."

The missionary class opened with a large attendance. The number enrolled has now the finest building devoted to music in the world. The advantages in composition, vocal and instrumental music, and elocution.

up to date is 60. The class is in charge of Prof. Miller, and the course includes four hours of theology and two hours of other instruction each day. The class contains zealous workers who are anxious to gain a knowledge of theology and allied subjects.

Thirty little tots were present at the opening of the kindergarten this week in the Lion House. The department occupies two bright, airy rooms on the first floor, and is furnished with an excellent piano, little chairs, tables, and table, the gifts, and other apparatus. Mrs. Donnette Kesler is in charge of the kindergarten training class. Mrs. M. P. Peters is one of the students.

BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY

Provo, Sept. 18.—The commercial school has registered a higher number of students than during the first three weeks of any previous year in its history.

The large picture of the old Provo fort has been removed temporarily to the Art Exhibit in the gymnasium hall.

The high school now elects its own monitors to keep order. The students have selected six of their number to take charge of the large room during study hours.

Mrs. Dusenberry reports her kindergarten department in excellent running order.

A very pleasant excursion to Provo bench fruit farms has been planned for Saturday the 20th. A good time is expected by the students, but a fruit famine is predicted by the sagacious farmers.

In the gymnasium hall during this week, the Utah Art Institute has been displaying a splendid collection of pictures. Every day has witnessed a swarm of students entering and leaving the hall; and in the evenings Provo people have crowded the place to view the best productions of Utah artists. Not only were the visitors treated to the beauty of the masterpieces in painting, but they were also entertained by sweet strains of music from orchestras and mandolin clubs.

Wednesday morning Alma Greenwood of Fillmore, a student of the Utah Art Institute, while Dr. Maeser was in charge, spoke to the students for a few minutes. Brother Greenwood expressed himself as surprised and pleased at the remarkable change in conditions since his school days at the wonderful growth of the school and at the large and magnificent buildings.

At 4 o'clock Monday afternoon nearly all the students assembled in College hall to decide whether or not the school paper, "The White and Blue," should be published this year. Great patriotism was manifested by the various classes, all declaring vigorously in favor of the proposition. It was decided to have a board of directors consisting of 12 members. After a spirited rivalry the following named students were elected: J. Frank Hoyt, Albert Day, Nellie Schofield, Alex. Walker, Sytha Brown, Earl Scott, Allie Carlson, Henry Seerist, D. H. Townsend, Wallace Lowery, Francis Shelton and Dell Boyer.

The parents' class will open next Wednesday, Sept. 24. The following is the program for the year:

PUTNAM NAIL CO.

Dear Sirs,—

In reply to your favor I would state that I have used the Putnam Nail for several years, and have advised my friends to use it only.

It is hardly necessary for me to add that I prefer it to all others.

Very truly, Albert Parnes.

The Putnam Nail enjoys the distinction of being the only Hot-Forged and Hammer-Pointed nail made by machinery, and which imitates the old hand process.
